

I sincerely urge you to not change the current laws which would create more larger media conglomerates. The airwaves and media access belongs to the public and not to corporations more in tune to their bottom line than public safety.

Sincerely,
Gene Pittman